TWICE IS THE ONLY WAY TO LIVE WITH MI6 DECLASSIFIED ISSUE #6 OUT NOW

(London, UK, September 21st, 2009) MI6 Declassified, the full-colour magazine celebrating the world of James Bond 007, returns with its sixth issue.

Amongst the special guests featured in MI6 Declassified #6 are: actor Robert Davi reflecting on his role as Sanchez as Licence To Kill celebrates its 20th anniversary, Wing Commander Ken Wallis discussing Little Nellie, and author Charlie Higson on completing his fifth Young Bond book.

This issue includes the first of a series of in-depth features on the classic James Bond films with a 10-page 'Making You Only Live Twice' special. With rarely seen photography and anecdotes from cast and crew, MI6 Declassified #6 is not to be missed!

Featured in the sixth issue:

- Exclusive interview with Robert Davi on his role as Sanchez in Licence To Kill
- Making You Only Live Twice - an exhaustive account of the fifth EON production
- Author Charlie Higson talks about completing his fifth Young Bond book
- Shooting in Key West - following the production of Licence To Kill in Florida
- David Hedison reflects on playing Felix Leiter twice
- Flying With Commander Ken Wallis - Little Nellie's inventor and pilot
- Domark's early Bond games are remembered as a blast from the past
- Before Bond - a look back at Cubby Broccoli's pre-007 productions
